

DEWEY WANTS TO AVOID FATIGUE

Famous Sailor Eludes His Admirers.

TO SPARE HIMSELF FOR COMING TRYING ORDEALS.

No One Permitted to Greet the Hero Aboard the Olympia, Except Those Having Business—Tompkinsville Filled With Visitors This Morning and All Are Anxious To Do Honors—An Interchange of Courtesies Prior to the Big Demonstration—Elaborate Plans For Great Naval Parade.

Tompkinsville, Sept. 28.—[Special.]—Fair skies and cool, crisp weather again greeted Admiral Dewey and his men this morning.

Many small crafts began to circle around the Olympia before 8 o'clock this morning, but no one was allowed aboard, as the admiral wished to avoid fatigue and spare himself for the trying ordeals of Friday and Saturday.

No one was permitted to greet the admiral today, except those having business with him.

Tompkinsville is filled with visitors this morning and all are anxious to get a glimpse of the famous sailor.

New York, Sept. 28.—The Olympia is at rest off Tompkinsville, and Admiral Dewey has touched land for the first time since he left Gibraltar, and American soil for the first time since January of 1898.

Early Wednesday morning, while the Olympia was lying off the southwest spit buoy, before her journey to Tompkinsville, there came around the bend of the Sandy Hook shore a man-of-war flying the pennant of a rear admiral. Her lookout sighted the Olympia in an instant, and there was a scurrying of men to the guns and then the roar of the cannon.

It was the flagship Chicago of the south Atlantic squadron, carrying Rear Admiral Howison, who did not know that Dewey had arrived until the Olympia was sighted. The Olympia answered with thirteen guns, the salute due to a rear admiral. The Chicago then proceeded on her way to Tompkinsville.

At 9 o'clock, shortly after the Chicago had passed, the Olympia weighed anchor and started for Tompkinsville, where Admiral Dewey was to assume command of the north Atlantic squadron. On board the Olympia was Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Charles H. Allen, who had brought the greetings of President McKinley to the admiral. Major Burbank, commandant at Fort Hamilton, also paid him a visit before anchor was raised.

The Olympia was accompanied to Tompkinsville by the Dolphin and a small fleet of newspaper tugboats. When the Narrows was reached a myriad of tugs, steam yachts and craft of all sorts and conditions swooped down on the Olympia to escort her through. Then, dropping in her wake, they formed a procession to Tompkinsville.

The forts on either side of the Narrows—Fort Wadsworth and Fort Hamilton—began to salute the Olympia at 11:03 o'clock, and the vibrating detonations fairly shook the hills of Staten Island. The forts fired seventeen guns each, and as the last echo of the deafening boom died away the Olympia sent back a reply.

When the Olympia reached the government anchorage off Tompkinsville the north Atlantic squadron was riding at anchor. All the warships were gleaming white in coats of new paint, which temporarily effaced their grim purpose, and on their decks the marines were mustered at and the blue jackets forward. The officers swarmed upon the bridges.

The New York's guns gave the signal for the salute to Admiral Dewey, and those of the other vessels joined in simultaneously. The roar was terrific.

When the salute was ended the Olympia replied with her guns. Immediately all of the steamboats, ferryboats, tugboats and excursion boats, even the little craft, with whistles whose voices were as the sighing of the wind to the blast of the hurricane by comparison, joined in tumultuous effort, to the imminent peril of ear-drums. Locomotives, too, took up the shrieks and roars and prolonged them. Diminishing her speed, the Olympia passed the fleet and dropped her anchor to the north of the New York and at the head of the line. The admiral was then ready to receive visits from the officers of the fleet.

The first visitor was Capt. Train of the battleship Massachusetts. After this came the other captains of the fleet—Chadwick of the New York, Taylor of the Indiana, Jewell of the Brooklyn and Lieutenant-Commander Harber of the Texas, who commands the ship in the absence of Capt. Sigbee on account of the death of his daughter.

Soon after Capt. Train left the ship Rear Admiral Howison arrived alongside in a launch, and, going aboard, paid his respects to the admiral.

Admiral Dewey at 11:30 left the flagship, in his launch for an official visit to all the other ships of the fleet. He went first to the New York to pay his respects to Rear Admiral Sampson and return the visit paid him by the latter Tuesday. As he stepped on board the admiral's salute was fired. When he left the New York he visited the other ships in turn.

During the afternoon the admiral paid a visit to the Brooklyn navy yard. There he was greeted by Capt. Wilde, who commanded the Boston at the battle of Manila. The two men were heartily glad to see each other.

As soon as the admiral landed, the marines rattled off a lively salute; to which Admiral Dewey listened, motionless, with his hand to the cockade of his hat.

"Well," said he, turning to one of the officers at his side, "that is the first genuine American salute I have heard, and this is the first time my foot has touched American soil in about two years."

Admiral Dewey remains on the flagship today. His calendar contains three engagements, as follows: At 9:30 o'clock the committee from Washington, which has come to escort him to that city for the dinner on Oct. 3, when the nation's sword will be presented, will call upon him. At 12:30 o'clock Gen. Wesley Merritt and his staff will call to extend a welcome on behalf of the army.

Gov. Roosevelt, with his staff and under escort of the naval militia of the state, will make his official call upon Admiral Dewey on board the Olympia at 1 o'clock. He will also pay his respects to Rear Admirals Howison and Sampson. After Gov. Roosevelt's official call he will hold a reception on the old frigate New Hampshire, now used as the headquarters of the naval militia of the state of New York, moored at Tompkinsville.

PREPARING FOR THE BIG PARADE

City and Surroundings Being Made a Glare of Color and Light.

New York, Sept. 28.—Preparations for the two great parades which will form the most wonderful welcome home ever given an American are complete. Thousands of decorators are busy from dawn till dark transferring the city streets into one gigantic flag, for the red, white and blue are everywhere dominant.

At night a glare on the sky like that from some great conflagration or the mirrored sheen of a volcano's crater hangs above New York. It is from the myriad electric illuminations which are to turn night into day for Dewey—the illuminated handwriting on the walls of the city—"Welcome Hero." Great bands of lights encircle buildings from pavement to dome, top the towers of semi-public places and top the Brooklyn bridge.

The committee, of which Gen. Howard Carroll is chairman has completed the details of the naval parade. The official list enumerates nearly 400 vessels which will be in line and appropriately decorated. It is expected that at least 400 other craft not officially listed will fall into line.

The parade will start from quarantine Friday at 1 p. m., led by the police boat Patrol 1. The Olympia, flagship of Admiral Dewey, will head the naval division. Then will come the Chicago, protected cruiser, flagship of Rear Admiral Howison.

After that, the New York, armored cruiser, flagship of Rear Admiral Sampson; Indiana, first-class battleship; Massachusetts, first-class battleship; Texas, first-class battleship; Brooklyn, armored cruiser; Lancaster, gunnery ship; Marietta, gunboat; Scorpion, auxiliary cruiser; the torpedo-boats Porter, Dupont, Ericsson and Cushing; the revenue cutters Manning, Algonquin, Gresham, Wincom and Onondaga; the transports Sedgwick, McPherson and McClellan, and the hospital ship Missouri.

The first division of escorting columns, consisting of yachts, will be under the command of Commodore J. Pierpont Morgan, on the Corsair as flagship. The port column will be led by Howard Gould's Niagara and the starboard by Sir Thomas Lipton's Erin. They will be followed by ninety-three steam yachts.

The second division of merchant marine will be under command of Capt. Perry, on the flagship Red Ash. Among the 108 ships that will follow him, in twelve sections, is the Buena Ventura, the first prize captured in the Spanish war.

The third division will consist of barges, tugs, propellers and unattached vessels, under command of Capt. Fred B. Dalzell. One hundred and four vessels will follow him.

Bryan's Tribute to Dewey.

Plattsburgh, N. H., Sept. 28.—At the close of a two hours' talk in the open air in this city Wednesday William J. Bryan said of Dewey's arrival: "The American people will welcome Dewey with open arms. Nothing should be left undone to prove to him and to the world that his distinguished services are appreciated by his countrymen. He has added glory to the American arms and won for himself an enduring place in our nation's history."

New Honor for Dewey.

Washington, Sept. 28.—It has been decided to make Admiral Dewey an advisory member of the cabinet at Washington, in order that the administration can have his assistance in solving problems developing from the Philippine situation.

TOM DOMINGO WILL BE SENT TO WAUPUN

PORTO RICAN BROUGHT BACK BY THIRD REGIMENT.

Three Men Badly Injured In a Wreck At Fond du Lac—One Legged Tramp Arrested On Charge of Assault At Madison, Goes to Waupun—State News.

Marquette, Wis., Sept. 28.—The State prison will number among its inmates a Porto Rican sometime within the next few weeks. Tom Domingo, confined in the jail here, charged with burglary, has decided to plead guilty next Monday. He was brought back from the island by the Third regiment band after the war and worked for a time in a barber shop here. He developed a strong penchant for stealing and for three weeks the city was startled by a series of burglaries. Domingo had disappeared from his accustomed haunts at the same time and a diligent search was made for him as the probable burglar. He was found at last under a building from where he issued only at night times and plied his criminal work. The building was on the main street of the city, and a further search revealed the fact that he had built for himself under it a regular den where he stored all the goods. He managed to get away with several hundred dollars' worth of goods and the burglary of a large amount in cash from one of the residences of the city is credited to him. Since his incarceration he has tried to commit suicide several times. He went through the entire campaign in Porto Rico with the Third regiment, and proved very faithful. His actions were somewhat of a surprise.

The passenger train was in charge of Conductor Butler, Engineer Tom Roberts and Fireman George Foster. The two latter remained in their engine and were half buried in the coal, which was showered upon them from the tender. The caboose was demolished.

OCONTO SAW MILL DESTROYED TODAY

ENTIRE CITY THREATENED AND OUTSIDE AID ASKED.

Plant Which Was Valued At $100,000 Is Insured For $40,000—Origin of Fire Is Unknown—Company May Rebuild—Hose Cart Driver Was Injured.

Oconto, Wis., Sept. 28.—[Special.]—The Oconto Lumber Company's saw mill was destroyed by fire this morning together with 12,000 feet of lumber, piled along the transfers.

The mill was insured for $40,000 and was valued at over $100,000.

The origin of the fire is not definitely known, but is supposed to have caught from a spark from the saw-mill smoke stack.

The mill may be rebuilt.

The Oconto Company has nine million feet of logs in the booms; six million feet of standing pine and ten million feet of hemlock in the country tributary to the Oconto river.

The fire caught on the roofs of buildings throughout the city and D. U. Milsbury's house was destroyed.

James Rasmussen, the driver of a hose cart, had his fingers nearly torn off by catching in a screw of the wagon.

The leg of a horse on a tram car was horribly roasted.

During the excitement when it was thought that the whole town would be burned, Green Bay was asked to send engines.

ROBBERS GET A LARGE SUM

Hugh M. Shorb, Former Janesville Man, a Heavy Loser

The robbing of the Citizens' bank at Durand, Ill., at an early hour yesterday morning was evidently the work of experienced safe crackers. There are many conflicting reports as to the amount of money secured by the burglars. At any rate, Hugh M. Shorb, proprietor of the bank, a former Janesville resident, is a heavy loser. The Rockford correspondent to the Chicago Tribune gives the following account of the daring robbery under date of Sept. 27th:

"Experienced burglars blew open the safe in the Citizens' bank at Durand at 2:30 o'clock this morning, securing a large amount in gold and paper money, estimated all the way from $5,000 to $10,000, wrecked the interior of the building, and made good their escape. Frank Yone, a merchant, was the first one downtown in the morning and discovered the robbery. The front of the one-story bank building was torn out, the big steel door of the vault being blown through it. He notified Cashier York, who after making a hasty examination, stated that all the money on hand had been taken.

The people of Durand heard three explosions in the night, but they were not very loud and attracted no attention. Nobody lives near the bank building and the robbers had everything in their favor. Entrance to the building was gained by boring three holes and tearing the lock off the rear door. The safe was inside a heavy steel vault. The door of the vault was first blown off and out through the front window and then two more explosions were necessary before the contents of the safe could be reached. A large part of the bank's funds were in gold in a sack in the safe.

The bank, which is owned by Hugh M. Shorb, who owns a chain of saloons in this section, expected a large sum of money by express yesterday, but it failed to arrive. Farmers living on the road south to Peatonica also report having heard a team drive hurriedly past at 4 in the morning.

Durand is a village of 500 people, and business was almost at a standstill today because of the excitement over the robbery.

The authorities are of the belief that the work was done by the same two men who attempted to break open the safe of the bank of Holcomb, Monday of this week. It is also believed that the robbers carry with them two bicycles, to be used when the team of horses are abandoned, enabling them to continue their journey without as much suspicion as if holding on to the stolen horses. Many miles can also be covered on wheels now, as almost all the public highways are in fine condition for fast riding.

The funds stolen belong mostly to depositors, although a large portion is property of the owner of the bank, Mr. Shorb.

The people of Durand are greatly stirred up over the affair, and excitement runs at a high degree. It is stated that Mr. Shorb will have the bank open for business as soon as a new safe can be purchased.

FIRE SCARE THIS MORNING

Department Called to the Home of Thaddeus Healy

An alarm of fire at 9:16 o'clock this morning from box No. 261, located at the corner of Walker and North Hickory streets, called the department to the residence of Thaddeus Healy, No. 105 North Hickory street, where a chimney was burning out. The blaze amounted to nothing and was out by the time the firemen arrived, but quite a scare was occasioned by it in the immediate neighborhood. The heavy north-east wind which has prevailed all day made it a bad one for a fire and it is lucky that the one of this morning did not get a start.

IDENTIFY THE STOLEN GOODS

Two Men Arrested at Beloit Are Taken to Madison.

The two men arrested at Beloit yesterday by Chief of Police Appleby and Officer Chamberlain of that city, on the charge of robbing a store at Oregon last week, gave their names as Charles Alberts and Frank Brown. These men have been around Beloit for several days, and sold two pairs of ladies' shoes and a man's coat to persons in that city, which aroused the officers' suspicions. Yesterday afternoon Barney Connor of Connor Bros., and Officer E. F. Durheiser of Madison, went to Beloit, and Mr. Connor identified the goods as stolen from his store. The prisoners were taken to Madison last night.

GEN. M'ARTHUR ENTERS PORAC

Takes Town After Half Hour's Fight.

REBELS FLEE TO THE NORTH AND DESERT THE PLACE.

Aguinaldo's Personal Agent At London

Launches a Presidential Boom For Admiral Dewey—Says He Denies Interviews Reflecting On the Credit of the Filipinos—If Elected They Would Place Everything In the Hero's Hands—Philippine Ports Open to All Nations Except United States.

Manila, Sept. 28.—[Special.]—The American troops under General MacArthur, entered Porac, after a half-hour's fighting this morning. The American loss was slight, and the insurgent loss is unknown.

Porac was practically deserted when the troops entered, the rebels fleeing to the north.

PRESIDENTIAL BOOM FOR DEWEY

It is Launched, However, by Aguinaldo's Agent at Paris.

London, Sept. 28.—[Special.]—Aguinaldo's personal agent here wired him today as follows:

"Dewey denies all the interviews credited to him, reflecting on the Filipinos. He is looming up strong as a presidential possibility."

The agent said if Admiral Dewey was elected president of the United States, Aguinaldo would immediately stop the war and place everything in the admiral's hands.

Filipinos Boycott Uncle Sam

Hong Kong, Sept. 28.—[Special.]—A Filipino proclamation was issued here today declaring all Philippine ports open to all nations except the United States.

Manila, Sept. 28.—A general advance of the American troops against Porac has commenced. Gen. MacArthur and Wheeler moving from Santa Rita and Gen. Wheaton from Angeles.

Two Filipino majors entered the American lines last night under a flag of truce and requested permission to bring in this morning the prisoners held by the insurgents.

Owing to the advance having been decided upon the Americans refused to grant the request and refused to enter into any negotiations with the insurgent envoys looking to the release of the prisoners.

The insurgents are trying to incite the natives of Malabon, a city of 30,000 inhabitants five miles from Manila, to rise against the American garrison. Capt. Allen has been holding the place with two companies of the Sixteenth Infantry, but on account of the need of all the available men at the front his force has been reduced to seventy men. They now remain near the big church, where they are quartered, being too few in number to attempt to patrol the town.

Aguinaldo has issued a decree inviting Filipino deserters to return within a month, in which case they will be pardoned.

MUST FLY THE AMERICAN COLORS.

Spanish Vessel Not to Be Allowed to Collect Prisoners.

Manila, Sept. 28.—The American authorities declined the request of Gen. Jaramillo, the Spanish officer who is settling Spain's military affairs in the Philippine islands, to send a vessel under the Spanish flag to collect the Spanish prisoners at insurgent ports, as stipulated by the Filipinos. The ground is taken that the ports are closed; that such a step, therefore, would be unlawful and because the authorities declined to accept the Filipinos' dictation.

The authorities are ready to send an American vessel. The Spanish commission, therefore, will return to the insurgent lines and endeavor to effect an arrangement for the delivery of the prisoners on board an American vessel.

The Tagals of the island of Mindanao have expressed their readiness to accept American sovereignty in exchange for protection against the harassing Moros.

A native officer has offered Major Gen. Otis 1,000 Macabebe tribesmen to fight Tagals of the Laguna de Bay district.

The troops engaged in the fighting at Cebu belonged to the Nineteenth Infantry, Sixth Infantry, Twenty-third Infantry and Sixth artillery.

Rebels In Southwestern Cebu

Manila, Sept. 28.—Col. Snyder's recent campaign against the insurgents in the island of Cebu resulted in severe fighting. After a two days' battle, on Sept. 22 and 23, the insurgents were driven from their mountain strongholds in the vicinity of the city of Cebu, and seven forts, with their cannon, together with fourteen other fortifications, were destroyed. The enemy was driven to the southwest point of the island.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE TRUST CONFERENCE.

BY SENATOR JOHN M. WHITEHEAD.

Observations of a Wisconsin Delegate

OPPOSITION GIVE WAY TO A SPIRIT OF INQUIRY

Franklin Head, when he called the Chicago Conference on Trusts and Combinations to order, said: "It is not a trust conference nor an anti-trust conference, but a conference in search of truth and light. With this end in view the attendance has been solicited of men of every shade of opinion upon the general subject, from the man who regards trusts and trade combinations as the standing menace of our national prosperity and even to the perpetuity of our system of government, to those who feel that trade combinations and large aggregations of active capital are simply a natural evolution in the development of our industrial and commercial life." The conference held fairly well to the purpose for which it was called as outlined by the president of the civic federation who had instituted it, from the beginning of its sessions to the end. Reformers of all shades were present, politicians, office holders, college professors, business men and editors, and participated more or less fruitfully in the deliberations. It was noticeable that those who had most to say in denunciation of trusts and least to offer for their correction were early at the front, but as the days passed wholesale condemnation manifested counted for less and suggestions of relief from real or imaginary evils, due to the combinations, were more earnestly sought after. "Suitable Legislation" were words frequently used at first, but they were insufficient to satisfy the members of the conference who had come together in search of "Truth and Light" and only the suggestions of specific relief received any attention. There was a gradual accumulation of ideas which as they were gathered here and there by the more thoughtful speakers were worked over by them and made a part of the body of the conference's thought upon the subject of which it was deliberating.

The presentation made by Prof. Jenks at the opening of the conference, containing as it did practically the questions upon which all of the best thought of the conference turned in the process of its development, did not at first serve as a guide to the discussions. There was a certain amount of pent up indignation against trusts which had to come out in order to make room for such reflections as the lines thrown out by Prof. Jenks suggested and as the importance of the subject demanded. Evidently this indignation was shared in by both delegates and spectators, and the speech by Mr. Wootton of Texas, which consigned trusts in general to utter infamy was boisterously cheered.

There were other experts also whose excellent contributions to the literature of the subject in the early days of the conference prepared the way for a better discussion later on. It became more apparent as the time passed that excited opposition was giving way to the spirit of inquiry, and the careful work of the student was more attentively considered as it was taken up and represented by such men as Mr. Cockran and Mr. Poulke, and the exaggerated statements about and bitter complaints against trusts and combinations were laid aside in the more earnest consideration of facts presented and suggestions made for relief from conditions shown by the facts to exist. No one apologized for any evil that was clearly pointed out, and no one claimed that the great combinations of capital, which have been made recently and which are still being made, are free from perils. The conference wanted more and more to know the nature of the perils, the risks to society involved, and to hear plans looking to the removal of danger and protection from whatever unjust and harmful conditions were shown to exist.

As I have stated, from the beginning of the conference, there was clear thought, and as the conference proceeded it worked its way down into the minds of the delegates and of the spectators, displacing prejudice, allaying excitement, and strengthening the belief of the clear thinkers that as the dangers were clearly apprehended the relief would be found.

Mr. Dill, the corporation attorney of New York, who probably knew more about trusts and combinations than any other man, took the platform, and speaking out of his experience as organizer, attorney for and member of the Board of Directors of some of the most stupendous trusts in the country, pointed out the frauds attending the promotion and the over-capitalization in the organization of trusts, and frankly admitted the necessity of legal restraint upon these practices.

The suggestion made by the students of the subject early in the conference that publicity with reference to the at-fairs of these great corporations should be secured by law; that the discrimination in railroad rates, which operated to the advantage of the trusts should be prohibited, and that over-capitalization should be absolutely prevented were among the more important and most easily attainable remedies, which were apparently accepted by the whole conference.

Another suggestion made also the students of the subject and earnestly advocated by Mr. Cockran, that all special favors enjoyed by trusts and combinations, due to the protective tariff, should be immediately withdrawn, was favorably received by a large part of the conference, the friends of the tariff contending, however, in opposition that abuses complained of were not due to the tariff, but to other causes.

The notable events of the conference were the speeches of Bourke Cockran and W. J. Bryan. Mr. Bryan's speech seemed to kindle afresh the fires of intense opposition to trusts, which could only be quenched by their utter extermination, but when instead of proposing a method for their extermination he proposed a plan for their regulation which was clearly shown to be open to very serious objection, his declamatory periods seemed to have been very fittingly classified and disposed of by Mr. Cockran along with those of the orators from Arkansas and Texas under the general head of "Incomprehensible Noises."

I regard the conference as a success and likely to be productive of good. It illustrated the change in atmosphere, which occurs when clear thought takes the place of the clouds of prejudice and the mists of hasty, ill considered, glittering generalities.

EDISON'S LATEST SUCCESS

"Two Married Men" at the Myers Grand Saturday Evening.

George R. Edison's latest comedy success, "Two Married Men," will appear at the Myers Grand next Saturday evening. Unlike most farce comedies, there is a plot, and a very funny one too; it deals with the mishaps of two bachelors who start out to enjoy what they think an innocent flirtation, little dreaming of the many trials and tribulations they will meet with before returning to their own firesides.

CHAS. E. SCHILLING,
"TWO MARRIED MEN." CO

During the action of the play new songs and new specialties are introduced, which together with the many complications and comical situations met with by the two married men form one of the most enjoyable comedies that will be seen here this season.

Hoyt's Popular Play.

To "A Stranger in New York" belongs the distinction of playing to larger and more enthusiastic audiences last season than any of the other Hoyt attractions. Of all the plays that Mr. Charles Hoyt has contributed to the stage in the past, none has proven a greater drawing-card or made a more favorable impression than this, his masterpiece. So far as humor is concerned it has never been equalled on the stage. It affords the widest scope for versatility and is replete with bright lines, clever people and up-to-date features. "A Stranger in New York" comes to Janesville on Saturday, October 7th, for matinee and evening performance, at the Myers Grand Opera house, and that Mr. Hoyt's latest and best comedy success will call out an immense audience on these occasions, goes without saying. The company is said to be the strongest that Mr. Hoyt has yet sent upon the road to present this play.

Notice of Drawing Jury.

Notice is hereby given that on Saturday, the 14th day of October, A. D. 1899, and at one o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Rock county, at the court house in the city of Janesville, in said county, the petit jurors to serve at the November term of said court for 1899, will be drawn in the manner provided by law.

Dated Sept. 28, 1899.

TO DANCE FOR WORTHY CAUSE

Modern Woodmen to Give a Benefit Ball Monday Evening, Oct. 9.

The milk of human kindness evidently flows freely through the veins of the members of the local camp of Modern Woodmen. Monday evening, Oct. 9th, they will give a benefit dance at West Side Odd Fellows' hall. It is a worthy cause and the proceeds will be given to Fred Sherwood, an unfortunate member of that order. Mr. Sherwood has been ill for some time and the proceeds from this source will no doubt be large and a timely help to the unfortunate gentleman and family in their distress. The music will be furnished by Tuckwood's orchestra and the tickets will be 50 cents. It is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance and the public is cordially invited. The admission price is a paltry sum that the individual will not miss but in the aggregate will greatly assist in adding to the comforts of a needy person. Open your floodgates of sympathy and help in giving Mr. Sherwood a rousing benefit.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY PLANS TRIP WEST

MAY PASS THROUGH JANESVILLE ENROUTE TO ST. PAUL.

Scheduled to Be in the Saintry City October 12—Visit to the Cream City Will Be Delayed Until the 16th, Instead of 11th, As Originally Planned.

The plans of the western trip of President McKinley are subject to many changes, but according to the latest announcement, the chances bid fair for Bower City residents to gaze upon the chief executive of the nation.

According to the previous schedule of dates, the president was to have visited Milwaukee Oct. 11, but it now develops that he will be delayed in St. Paul on the 12th of next month, which date was necessarily fixed in order to meet a regiment of Minnesota soldiers returning from the Philippines. From Chicago, the president will go direct to St. Paul and should the journey be made over the Northwestern road, which is quite probable, Janesville people will be afforded an opportunity to "sit on the fence as he goes by."

The Washington correspondent of the Milwaukee Sentinel speaks of the western trip as follows:

"The arrangement in progress at the white house for the trip of the president to the west have reached a stage where there are strong indications that Mr. McKinley will not be able to visit Milwaukee until he returns from his trip through Minnesota and the Dakotas. While nothing is absolutely settled in respect to the Milwaukee date, the indications are that the time to be occupied in Chicago and at one or two towns in Illinois will so take the time of the president that he will be unable to visit Milwaukee October 11, as was originally contemplated."

Must Be in St. Paul October 12.

"The date of the president's arrival in St. Paul, October 12, was necessarily fixed absolutely, on account of arrangements to meet a regiment of Minnesota soldiers returning from the Philippines. In order to reach St. Paul on that date it may be necessary for the president to go direct from Chicago to St. Paul, or possibly from some other town in Illinois, if the arrangements for time in Chicago do not take a part of October 11."

"If the present plans are carried out the chances are decidedly in favor of President McKinley visiting Milwaukee on October 16, when he returns to northern Iowa on his way back east. All of these dates are subject to possible changes in view of the arrangements daily made for different towns and the rail facilities for reaching the several places are ascertained. It seems now, however, to be probable that the president will be in Milwaukee on October 16, instead of October 11."

Gov. Scofield at the Head.

Gov. Scofield will head the reception committee on the occasion of President McKinley's visit to Milwaukee, says the Sentinel. The other members of the committee, numbering sixty, have been selected from among the older class of representative businessmen of Milwaukee. The Committee of Arrangement and Entertainment is made up of thirty young business men, who will subdivide into committees to attend to the details as soon as definite information is received from President McKinley as to the date on which he will visit Milwaukee and the length of time he will remain. Henry C. Payne, who reached New York last evening for the purpose of extending today the invitation of the city of Milwaukee to Admiral Dewey to visit the city, will leave for Washington as soon as he has fulfilled his mission. Mr. Payne will call on the president and ascertain when he will visit Milwaukee, and will inform the Merchants & Manufacturers' association by telegraph. As soon as this is done the personnel of the committees will be made known and the work of preparing for the president's reception and entertainment will be carried forward to completion.

The railroads have granted a rate of a fare and one-third for the round trip from all points within a radius of 125 miles of Milwaukee during the president's visit to Milwaukee. The tickets will be good to return on the day following the visit.

MIXED QUARTETTE TO SING

Will Take Place of Choir at Christ Church.

The chorus choir of Christ church has been disbanded and its place will be taken by a mixed quartette composed of the following well known vocalists, under the very efficient direction of Miss Julia C. Wilson, who will also continue to act as organist: Miss Mary Wilcox, soprano; Mrs. Edward M. Hyzer, alto; Ed. O. Smith, tenor; Harry P. Robinson, basso.

The editor of the Angelus, the church paper in summing up the work done by the retiring choir says among the other things:

"We have often felt that the singers of Janesville are not appreciated as they should be. Much is expected of them in the churches, and while it is often impossible to recompense them for their services, they are not even thanked, nor is any indication given that their gratuitous services are ever appreciated."

"In our case the parish has been very fortunate the last ten years in having the praises of God so well rendered as they have been under the efficient management of Mrs. William Ruger, and since 1894 under the direction of Mrs. Barrington."

"We feel that such service has not been appreciated as it should have been; and now that Mrs. Barrington has felt it necessary to resign that she may be relieved of all responsibility, we want to testify to the great worth of her services and to what a saving they were to the parish. We thank her personally, and we thank her in behalf of the parish which she has served so gratuitously so many years. We also feel very grateful to all who give their services to the church, some for so many years, and if their efforts have not appeared to have been appreciated as they should have been, there is a certain satisfaction that must be theirs—a duty done faithfully and well."

New World's Record.
Louisville, Sept. 28.—Bumps, a brown gelding owned by C. K. G. Billings of Chicago, lowered the world's record to wagon at the track of the Louisville Driving and Fair association. Nearly 3,000 people saw Bumps pace the mile in 2:03 1/4, one and one-half seconds faster than any horse had ever gone the distance before under similar conditions. He went the first quarter in 30 seconds and the half in one minute, a two-minute gait for the mile.

Information from Bloemfontein leaves little doubt that the Orange Free State volksraad is, unanimous in supporting the Transvaal.

May 16 Miss Woodland's Body.
New Orleans, La., Sept. 28.—The body of a young woman recently found on the shores of Timbalier island is believed to be either Miss Florence Yocum of St. Louis or Miss Marjorie Woodland of Chicago, who were victims of the Paul Jones naphtha launch disaster last February. Both families have been notified.

Talk of Rise in Bank Rate.
London, Sept. 28.—The financial articles in the morning papers discuss the probability of a rise in the bank rate. It is reported that all the gold that has just arrived from the Cape has been secured for the United States, and rumors are current that £300,000 ($1,500,000) is wanted for Argentina.

300 Dead About Darjeeling.
Calcutta, Sept. 28.—Later reports of the fatalities caused by the series of earthquake shocks and landslides on Sunday night show that 300 persons lost their lives in the vicinity of Darjeeling alone. The road between Darjeeling and Sonada will probably be blocked for two months. The subsidence of the hillside at Darjeeling continues and threatens to destroy the whole bazar.

Another Soldier Has Smallpox.
San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 28.—Another case of smallpox, Private Ross, company M, has developed among the Thirty-fifth infantry, now in strict quarantine on Angel island. This makes in all ten cases in this regiment. In addition, twenty-six men of this regiment are ill with typhoid fever at the Presidio hospital.

Havana Strike Is Broken.

FLEMISH OAK.

The Favorite Wood for Fashionable Artistic Furniture.

More and more beautiful are the articles of furniture made in Flemish oak—the wood that now seems the greatest favorite for fashionable and artistic furniture, says the New York Post. For the dining-room and library its richness and elegance of effect can hardly be surpassed. If some housekeepers still frown upon the dust-harbor quality of its elaborate carvings, the argument is met by art lovers with the word that the most beautiful things need care and that carved Flemish oak richly repays the effort needed to keep it clean. Massive sideboards are shown in the long, colonial design, whose single shelf is supported by wonderfully carved little men, fourteen and eighteen inches high, with pointed beards. The massive dining-room table which accompanies the sideboard has still more and larger specimens of these same droll-looking little fellows. The beautiful Flemish oak chairs for dining-room and library have sides and backs in stamped leather of rich and subdued colors. In some of them a coat of arms is displayed—anybody's presumably—and it was the admission of the salesman when the question was asked that this sort sold better in democratic America than any other. The library tables are as often covered with the same stamped leather and left with their beautiful stretch of dark, highly polished surface.

The Stature of Rulers.

In point of stature the rulers of today compare very favorably with their predecessors. Christian I., King of Denmark, was 7 feet high. The present Danish king, Christian IX., barely reaches 5 feet 11 inches, and his son, King George of Greece, is 4 inches shorter. The same physical decline seems to mark the czars of Russia. Peter the Great was a giant of 6 feet 10 inches. The czar of today barely reaches 5 feet 6 inches. The late German emperor, William I., was 6 feet high, and his brother, Princes Charles, was but an inch shorter. The present kaiser cannot stretch himself beyond 5 feet 8 inches. The king of the Belgians, with 6 feet 4 inches of stature, is the tallest of living monarchs; and Queen Victoria, with 4 feet 10 inches, 2 inches less even than the present Chinese emperor, is the shortest, as she is the best.

GOV. PATTISON'S POSITION

Former Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania, one of the best known eastern democrats, is outspoken in his support of President McKinley and his Philippine policy. In an interview with a Chicago reporter he said:

"My duty as an American citizen commands my support of the country's president at this juncture. When he said in his Pittsburgh speech that the Philippines were just as much American soil as were Texas or Alaska he spoke the truth.

"The islands are ours by title of treaty, and we have no title to Louisiana or Alaska except that confirmed by treaty. As they are ours, we are bound to see them pacified, to set up law and order in their midst. This is our first duty, it is a national duty, and democrats and republicans alike are bound to help fulfill that duty. The immediate object confronting us is the reduction of the Philippines to order, and it is vain as it is wrong to speculate about what we shall do with them, or what sort of government we shall set up or how much self-government we shall extend to the natives, until we have solved the immediate question. To take trouble about those ultimate matters when an immediate matter threatens is impractical as it is un-American.

"I have no doubt the American people will readily consent to erect around them a ring of self-governing republics, once they are convinced the respective people are capable of autonomy. But I have no doubt that the American flag will float wherever it is now planted until such time as there is no doubt that a free and orderly government can be established and exercised by those people. We have stepped in, and our paramount duty, superior to all others, is to afford protection to those lands and to the individuals and the trade in those lands.

"We cannot withdraw. Withdrawal would wound our honor, and would invite the invasion of other nations into the affairs of those lands. Whatever be our state now, withdrawal would make our last stage far worse than our first.

"As to what our establishment in the Philippines may lead us into the future, there is no occasion to speak. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof, and no bridge should be crossed until we come to it."

Admiral Dewey explains his arrival ahead of time by saying: "I have made it a custom in life to try to be two or three days ahead instead of an hour behind." Wise, Dewey! Each day brings new evidences of his good sense.

The Chicago Tribune has experienced a change of heart. It now concedes that it is probable that Gen. Otis has done as well as anyone could, and also admits that Admiral Sampson has a right to live.

The Olympia may be only a second class cruiser, yet the fact remains that she carries the "biggest gun" in the naval service.

Admiral Dewey declares that the Filipinos are not capable of self government, so that subject is no longer open to debate.

It is only natural, however, that Dewey should be ahead of time—he's always "on deck," you know.

Edward Atkinson must be knocked "all into a heap" when he reads the interviews with Admiral Dewey.

A faction of New York democrats "are after Croker's scalp"—that is, behind it, and there they will stay.

Gov. Pattison's democracy is not of the there are none-so blind-as-those-who-will-not-see brand.

Dreyfus? Dreyfus? The name is familiar, but somehow we cannot just place him.

LOCAL DIVINES TAKE AN IMPORTANT PART

ALL HONORED AT WAUKESHA METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Revs. W. W. Woodside and Walter A. Hall Appointed to Important Positions—Rev. Frank A. Pease Presented With a Testimonial of Appreciation—Standing Committees.

Janeville ministers are taking an important part in the fifty-third annual Methodist conference, now in session at Waukesha and they have all been honored in some way by those invested with authority. Revs. W. W. Woodside and Walter A. Hall have been appointed to important positions on the standing committees, and Rev. Frank A. Pease was presented with a testimonial of appreciation by the conference.

Elder Pease's Farewell
When the turn of the Rev. F. A. Pease came to submit his farewell report as presiding elder of the Janeville district, a rustle of interest ran through the crowded church. Elder Pease is one of the most popular presiding elders in the conference, and his words, showing the spiritual advance made in the Janeville charge during the year were received with applause. But this was not all. When Elder Pease had personally said good-bye to his colleagues in the district, and took his seat in front of the altar, the Rev. Enoch Perry of Whitewater stepped up and said, addressing Dr. Pease:

Enoch Perry's Presentation Speech

"It is the request of the brethren of the Janeville district that I ask the indulgence of the conference for a few moments. And were it not for the fact that it is a man, a Methodist preacher, an honest presiding elder, that I am after, I might not be excused for taking valuable time at this stage of the conference. But, Bishop, a Christian man is the highest and noblest work of God, while there is nothing grander in all the universe than a man called of God to preach the gospel. Appreciation of such a man's work should be as natural as smiles upon the happy face of a child. It is glorious to deserve respect and tribute. Just now, and for the next three or four days the hearts of all the loyal people of our country will go out in ringing applause, and unmeasured appreciation of our victorious Deway—the hero of Manila. Nations who bestow crowns and confer knightships and lordly title will be taught that, in hearty appreciation and enthusiastic welcome America can lead the world. Our Deway shall stand as high and rank as great and live in the hearts of our people as long as Nelson, who won a monument from Trafalgar square and a place in Westminster Abbey, shall live in the hearts of Englishmen. And why? Because he added a star in our field of blue? That may not be. Because he destroyed a boasted fleet and ended the reign of Spanish oppression in those far away islands? Yes, but also that he has made it possible for preachers of the gospel to put stars forever in the crown of our conquering Christ.

"It does not hurt a preacher to be appreciated. When in this country, the late Dr. Berry of Wolverhampton, England, gave this gem of thought to an audience that keenly appreciated it: 'We love you and we tell you so.' Lightning carried that thought under the rolling billows and down the country to Wolverhampton, so that when he returned home his church held a 'welcoming banner' on the pulpit, with the words, 'We love you and we tell you so.' And, Brother Pease, I am authorized to say for the preachers of Janeville district: 'We love you and we tell you so,' before the bishop and the conference.

"During these six years you have brought sunshine to our homes, wise counsels to our quarterly conference and ability to our pulpits. I think your sainted father, who mounted the chariot of glory from this city may look down upon this scene with satisfaction and approval. And now from all the brethren of the district I present this testimonial of appreciation to you; and may it be a lasting joy to you and to your children when you are gone."

The testimonial, which was printed in illuminated characters, framed and mounted on an easel, read as follows:

Testimonial of Appreciation

Wisconsin Conference, Testimonial of Appreciation: At our annual conference which, six years ago, met in the city of Fort Atkinson, Bishop T. W. Joyce had the responsibility of selecting a presiding elder for the Janeville district. Wisely he selected from among the younger men Frank A. Pease to shoulder the tremendous responsibility. The office calls for large heartedness, keen insight, sound judgment, broad sympathies and a Christly spirit. Permit us your brethren, to say that in our humble judgment, you have met these demands with singular fullness and remarkable fitness. We have found in you an earnest and faithful adviser, an impartial administrator, a local co-worker and, indeed, a brother beloved. You have brought sunshine into our homes, wise counsel to our quarterly conference, and ability to our pulpits. While carefully guarding the interests of the churches and the conference, you have cherished the welfare of each of your pastors. The churches of the district have enjoyed your administration, profited by your Godly admonitions and greatly developed under your leadership. Your energy and high ideals have made the Janeville Epworth League district the banner district of the conference.

And now that by the law of our church you are about to lay down the responsibilities of the office of presiding elder, we desire to express our hearty appreciation of your unselfish and noble services and present you with this simple testimonial of our regard and abiding love. And may the Great Head of the church cause you yet more and more to triumph in Him.

The testimonial was signed by twenty-nine clergymen stationed in the Janeville district for from one to four years. The number of clergymen present was 180 against 116 at the fifty-second conference. The leading business of the conference is the appointment of clergymen. This is the last official act to be performed in the conference, and the list will be made known Monday. There is another subject of considerable interest to come up Friday, the election of the delegates to the quadrennial General conference, which meets at Chicago next May. On motion of Rev. Sabin Halsey, the election was made a special order for 10 o'clock Friday morning.

The names that are heard of most as candidates for clerical delegates are Presiding Elder Webster Miller of Fond du Lac district, the Rev. George H. Trever of Milwaukee, Rev. F. A. Pease, who is just retiring from the presiding eldership of the Janeville district, and Dr. Samuel Platz, president of Lawrence university. Candidates for lay delegates said to be strong are L. M. Alexander of Milwaukee and E. M. Beach of Waupun. It is likely that two professional clerical delegates will be elected, who will take their seats in the General conference if it passes an amendment increasing the representation of a committee on platform.

There is a possibility that the delegates, elected to the general conference will go unopposed to use their influence for a removal of the five year limit in pastorates and in favor of dividing the country into sixteen bishops' districts. A special committee on general conference legislation was appointed yesterday by Bishop Hurst. J. H. Tipton of Stevens Point, is chairman. The committee met yesterday afternoon and formulated a report committing the conference to the two changes mentioned, as well as some other slight changes in discipline. The report was voted for unanimously by four of the five members, the fifth, the Rev. Sabin Halsey, not being present at the meeting.

This report will be presented tomorrow or Friday, and if the conference adopts it the delegates to the general conference will go pledged to urge the amendments.

Probably the session, when the report is presented, will be one of the most interesting of the fifty-third conference, although not really so important to all the clergy as the announcement of the appointments for the next church year.

It is a far cry from instructing a conference's delegates to inducing the general conference to adopt such radical measures as these are in Methodism. The effect of the removal of the limitation would stop the preambulation of Methodist pastors. If the country is divided into districts, the same bishops will preside each year at the conferences in their districts, instead of alternating, as at present.

Conference Standing Committees.

The standing committees of the conference are announced as follows: Public Worship—The Rev. Messrs. D. C. John and J. S. Leach. Admonition to Conference—The Rev. Messrs. Samuel Joffe, George White, John Reynolds, E. S. McChesney, J. D. Cole.

GOOD HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL ELEVEN

TEAM FOR PRESENT SEASON PROMISES TO BE STRONG.

Some Great Games Scheduled—Will Require Hard Conscientious Work—Ross Bump Chosen As Captain—Long List of Candidates From Which to Choose Material.

The indications are that the Janeville High school football team for the present season will be one of the strongest that ever went onto the gridiron, and there is no doubt but that they will defend the title of champions of southern Wisconsin, which was won last year, and will carry the blue to victory in all of the scheduled contests. The team has some very hard games arranged for, and it will take hard, conscientious work on the part of every member of it from now on to keep in condition for them. Ross Bump has been chosen as captain, and is well fitted for the position, being a heady, fearless player. The material is all good and will be made up from the following candidates:

Fullbacks—Atwood, Farmer. Halfbacks—Galbraith, Griffiths, W. Ryan.

Quarter—Bump (captain), Casey. Ends—A. Ryan, Nicholson, Samuels, Sutherland.

Tackles—Baumann, Fisher. Guards—Barless, Airis, Kimball. Center—Turnbull, Smith.

The season will be opened next Saturday afternoon with a game between the first and second elevens at Athletic park, and a fast game is promised. Walter King has been chosen captain of the second eleven and he is rapidly bringing his men into good form. The teams have been practicing on Goose island for a number of days and have shown indications of very strong play, which will insure a good game Saturday. The teams have been handicapped by the lack of a coach so that up to the present time, the final selections of the men have not been made, but Fred Jeffris has been engaged to coach the first eleven and the line up will be decided at once.

Manager: Allan Lovejoy announces the following excellent schedule of games for the first team:

Sept. 30—First eleven vs. Second eleven at Athletic park.

Oct. 7—Whitewater High school at Janeville.

Oct. 14—Whitewater Normal Second eleven, at Whitewater.

Oct. 21—Beloit High school at Janeville.

Oct. 28—Open. Probably Milwaukee South Side High school at Janeville.

Nov. 4—Whitewater Normal Second eleven, at Janeville.

Nov. 11—Beloit High, at Beloit.

Nov. 18—Delavan High school, at Janeville.

Nov. 25—Whitewater High school, at Whitewater.

Nov. 30—Delavan High school, at Delavan.

The game Saturday will be called at 3 o'clock, and it is to be hoped that the public will encourage and support the boys by a good attendance at this contest as well as the others to come.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL FUNCTION TODAY

MRS. E. H. DAVIES AND DAUGHTER GIVE RECEPTION.

In Honor of Mrs. M. E. Tenney of Honolulu, Oahu—Occurs At Home of Mrs. Francis Greene, No. 201 Park Place—Floral Display Was Beautiful.

Another brilliant social function took place in Janeville this afternoon and was in the nature of a reception given by Mrs. E. H. Davies, and her daughter, Mrs. Francis E. Greene, in honor of Mrs. M. E. Tenney of Honolulu, Oahu. It was held at the home of Mrs. Greene, No. 201 Park Place, and the hours of receiving were from 2 until 6 o'clock. Some two hundred guests were bidden and nearly the entire number of ladies responded. The two hostesses received in the front drawing room, which was beautifully decorated with a wealth of roses, asters and sweet scented cosmos, the dainty colors of which harmonized perfectly with the exquisite toilets of the assembled guests.

The same idea in the decorations was carried out in the other rooms of the first floor, and the arrangement of the flowers and draperies was very artistic. In the dining room, red was the predominant color, and consisted of masses of delicate salvia distributed tastefully about the room. Here, dainty refreshments were served to the guests during the afternoon, and the hostesses were ably assisted by Mesdames A. E. Bingham, Stanley B. Smith, G. V. Yonck, C. T. Winslow, D. W. Watt, E. E. Spaulding, William Ruger, Jr., Malcolm O. Mount, and Mesdames Racine Bostwick, Alice Ruger and Harriet Fifield.

The social season in the Power City is opening up in an unusually auspicious manner, and the delightful reception of this afternoon was voted by those so fortunate as to be present, as one of the pleasantest ever given in the city, and one which will assure gratifying memories for some time to come.

Orange Free State Announces Its Determination.

STANDS WITH THE TRANSVAAL.

British Authorities Make Preparations to Send an Army Corps to the Cape—Lain's Nek Pass to Be Occupied at Once by a Strong Force.

Bloemfontein, Sept. 28.—The Volksraad of the Orange Free State has unanimously resolved to instruct the government to use every means to insure peace without violating the honor or independence of the Free State or the Transvaal.

In a further resolution the Volksraad declared its opinion that war would be criminal, but asserted that, come what might, the Free State would faithfully fulfill its obligations to the Transvaal in virtue of the existing political alliance.

London, Sept. 28.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily News says: "The pass of Lain's Nek will be occupied tomorrow with sufficient strength for present needs, under the belief that the Boers will attack Natal immediately, hoping to forestall the landing of the Indian contingent."

A run is commencing on the banks in the Transvaal and the Orange Free State.

At Liverpool it is asserted that the White Star steamer Britannic, and other steamers, have been engaged as transports to carry troops to South Africa.

London, Sept. 28.—Most of the British estimates concur in placing the combined forces of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State at about 50,000 men, exclusive of the contingents that may be obtained from Natal and the Cape Colony.

The Morning Post's Johannesburg correspondent says that the Boer official estimate is greatly in excess of this number, namely 125,000 from the Transvaal and Orange Free State, 8,000 from Natal and 30,000 from the Cape Colony.

The correspondent adds that the plan of the campaign formulated at Pretoria proposes the sending of 2,000 men into Rhodesia to overcome the slender forces there, after which the territory will be handed over to the natives.

Ten thousand men will rush the Natal border, capture the forts and prevent the landing of British reinforcements. The Boers rely on having sufficient supplies for a year. They expect that Russia will meanwhile intervene indirectly by creating a diversion somewhere in the British dominions.

Other correspondents concur in stating that the war spirit in the Transvaal is becoming more intense. The proximity of the Boers and British on the frontier makes the danger of a collision an ever-present one.

Result of Kruger's Prayer.
The Daily Chronicle's Cape Town correspondent says: "A friend of President Kruger here has received a letter stating that the president prayed three hours the other evening and afterward said he was perfectly happy. The Lord had told him to fight, and he was not afraid of Chamberlain."

Alarming Reports from Pretoria.
Alarming reports are still received from Pretoria. The young Boers are reported to be clamoring for war, and hurried preparations are said to be on foot.

The arrival of more troops is needed to restore confidence. Their presence would exercise a great moral effect upon the districts where loyalty to Great Britain is doubtful.

War Preparations Continue.

London, Sept. 28.—Preparations for war with the Transvaal continue, and the outlook for a peaceful settlement grows darker, although South African circles profess to believe that the Boers will finally yield to the British demands.

The war office is preparing to send an entire army corps to South Africa, and has issued orders for the necessary transport and supply service for that number of men.

Kaiser May Offer to Mediate.

Hamburg, Sept. 28.—Great excitement has been caused here by the appearance of extra editions of the newspapers containing a rumor to the effect that Emperor William will offer his services as mediator in the difficulties between Great Britain and the Transvaal government. The truth of this report, however, is doubted.

Northern Warriors for Kruger.

Stockholm, Sept. 28.—Information has reached this city to the effect that the Swedes, Norwegians and Danes residing in Pretoria have met and resolved that if a war shall be declared against the Transvaal by Great Britain they will do all in their power to assist the Transvaal government.

Old Victor to Lead the Boers.

Cape Town, Sept. 28.—While Gen. Joubert is the nominal commander of the Boer forces, the real leader in case of war with Great Britain will be Commandant Cronje, who was the leader of the Boers when they fired the first shot in the war for independence against Great Britain.

Enlisting for War in Africa.

Brussels, Sept. 28.—Numerous enlistments are made daily of persons who desire to go to the Transvaal to fight on the side of the Boers in the event of war with Great Britain. Anti-British meetings are being organized in various places throughout Flanders.

THE BASEBALL REPORT.

Results of Games Played Yesterday in the National League.

Chicago fortified itself in sixth place yesterday by appropriating one game from the Pirates. The second ended in a tie. Louisville became a less dangerous opponent by dropping a game to St. Louis. Boston and Brooklyn both won. Baltimore enjoyed the spectacle of two shut-outs, but the Orioles suffered only one, the hard-hitting Phillies receiving the other at the hands of McGinnity. Cleveland and Cincinnati had no game scheduled. The scores:

CHRISTIAN COUNTY IS SUED.

Operators Claim Damages Because of Protracted Idleness of Mines.

Pana, Ill., Sept. 28.—The operators of the coal mines here have entered suits against Christian county for damages, caused by the protracted idleness of the mines, claiming that the county has afforded them no protection in operating. The case will be bitterly fought.

The indictments against Capt. J. W. Kitchell, Louis Schillerbach, and Mrs. Emma Harts, charged with inciting the riot of April 10, have been quashed. Capt. Kitchell is in no way connected with the mines and is one of Pana's best citizens. Mrs. Harts has an interest in the Pana mine, but has never been in Pana. State's Attorney Humphreys is commended for having the indictments quashed.

McKinley and Bryan to Meet.

Canton, Ill., Sept. 28.—A dispatch was received here Wednesday from the president's private secretary stating that the presidential party would reach Canton about 3:30 p. m., Oct. 6, on the way from Quincy to Galesburg, and will be the guest of this city for a few hours. This arrangement is interesting from the fact that Col. Bryan is under engagement to be here and deliver an address that day at Canton's second annual street fair. The presidential train in all probability will arrive while Col. Bryan is speaking.

Great Growth of Methodism.

Mount Pleasant, Iowa, Sept. 28.—The fifty-sixth annual session of the Iowa conference of the Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday. Bishop McCabe said that in the last fifteen years the Methodist church had gained more members than the entire membership of any other denomination except the Baptists and Campbellites. Missionary receipts from collections only would probably exceed $1,300,000.

Five Dead in Freight Wreck.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 28.—Reports have been received in Helena of a bad wreck that occurred on the Great Northern road about 5 o'clock Wednesday morning a short distance west of Glasgow, Valley county. Five men were killed and two others seriously injured, all employees of the company. Nothing is known at the local office of the company respecting the accident.

McKinley's Visit to Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 28.—President McKinley will visit Peoria Oct. 6 from 4 o'clock until in the evening. From the train he will be driven to the soldiers' monument in the court house square, where the beautiful shaft will be dedicated. He will shake hands with the people at the National hotel. From here he will go to Galesburg.

Will Pay for Damage in Samoa.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—The Washington correspondent of the Hamburgischer Correspondenz telegraphs as follows: "Great Britain and the United States, I learn, have agreed to grant compensation to those who suffered damage during the recent bombardment in Samoa. Germany is to be exempt."

Fever Spreads at Jackson.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 28.—The board of health record shows five cases of yellow fever of pronounced type now existing in Jackson, three new ones having been reported Wednesday. Key West, Fla., Sept. 28.—There are twenty-six new cases of yellow fever reported and one death.

Fears for Big Steamer.

Montreal, Sept. 28.—Grave fears are expressed for the safety of the Dominion line steamship Scotsman, Capt. Skrimshire, which sailed from Liverpool for this port on Sept. 14. The Scotsman was due here on Sunday afternoon last.

Submarine Boats for France.

Paris, Sept. 28.—M. Lanesan, the minister of marine, has ordered the construction of four submarine torpedo-boats at Rochefort.

EASILY PROVEN.

There is Not the Slightest Necessity for Leaving Janesville to Look for Proof.

The experience given below by this well-known citizen of Janesville is easily proven. The proof he offers for his convictions can safely be left with the reader. It is a difficult matter to describe an aching back or any of the ills caused by disordered kidneys. How to cure the trouble is of much more importance, and the most exacting resident of Janesville cannot ask for any better authority on this point than that given by Veteran A. F. Lee, of 51 Sharon St., carpenter, who says:

For twenty years it troubled me a great deal, many days I could hardly keep at my work, and by rights should have said at home and do nothing. It was seldom that my back did not ache, and I have been completely laid up for three or four days at a stretch. When stooping or lifting or carrying heavy loads, the kidneys, the secretions from those organs were too frequent and accompanied by pain. I used all kinds of remedies, but to no avail. I was in a bad way when I took Dr. Lee's Kidney Pills at the People's Drug Co., I took the first three or four and my back was not so bad. I was brought about my work, and I steadily from then on and on completing the treatment I was in good condition and am now well.

PRESBYTERIANS IN COUNCIL.

Delegates at Washington Represent Twenty-five Million Church Members.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Delegates representing 25,000,000 Presbyterians throughout the world assembled Wednesday in the New York Avenue Presbyterian church to attend the first session of the pan-Presbyterian alliance.

The opening sermon was preached by the Rev. John DeWitt, professor of church history at Princeton Theological seminary, his subject being "The Attitude of the Reformed Churches Toward the Bible."

The subject of higher criticism promises to be one of the seriously mooted subjects of the council. It was directly adverted to in the sermon of Dr. DeWitt, and subsequently in the address of the president of the council, the Rev. Dr. J. Marshall Lang of Glasgow, Scotland.

Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the church in which the sessions are held, welcomed the delegates, and then the council directed the president to send a telegram of fellowship and greeting to the Congregational union council in session at Boston. A coalition of the two bodies was sought, but it was deemed too great a matter for hasty consideration.

The visiting Presbyterians and their ladies to the number of about 450 were given a brilliant reception at the white house at night by President and Mrs. McKimley.

Porter Thinks Dreyfus Guilty.

Moscow, Sept. 28.—Gen. Porter, United States ambassador to France, who is now in Moscow, says in an interview that the Dreyfus case is a great mystery, which probably will never be solved. In his opinion Dreyfus is undoubtedly guilty, but was not the principal medium of the treasonable commerce with agents of foreign governments. This, he says, is also the opinion of several of the leading diplomats of Paris.

For a General Reunion.

Detroit, Sept. 28.—It is probable that the scope of next year's Army of the Cumberland reunion at Chattanooga will be extended so as to include a general reunion, inclusive of the societies of all the great armies of the civil war. While no definite action was taken to this and at the final business session of the Army of the Cumberland, the society's officers are directed to endeavor to bring the project about.

To Frame Financial Bill.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island has called a meeting of the senate finance committee for early in October to continue the work of preparing the financial bill to be introduced in congress on behalf of the joint committee of the two houses that was charged with the work of framing a bill. The committee will meet this time at Hot Springs, Virginia.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12. Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often too hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the particularly delicate, womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Last Week of the

at W. H. Ashcraft's is a thing of the past. All prices made this month will continue until October 1. In addition to the many bargains offered you will find new ones today.

Another great bargain is this (Like Cut.) Sideboard!

Look at this three Chamber Suit. It is sold everywhere at $15.00. My September Sale price is $12.00
COME AND SEE IT. JUST LIKE CUT.

It is solid solid oak, golden oak finish, one drawer lined, solid cast brass trimmings. It is a beauty, and $13 would be the ordinary price. During this month will be sold at $10

Couches (like in Tapestry Corduroy, and cuts.) Velours At $4.50, $5.50, $6.50 and $7.50. They are all new and great bargains.

Any one needing a Couch will do well to look at my goods and hear the prices.

Saturday, September 30, will be the last day of my sale. Come in. I will be pleased to show you all goods just as advertised. Satisfaction guaranteed.
